Ocean Action for Sustainability – Building a global vision to tackle plastic pollution

HIGH LEVEL EVENT CO-HOSTED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF KENYA AND UNEP

Our planet is facing three major crises: climate change, biodiversity loss and pollution. During this event, we will use an ocean lens to dive into the issue of marine litter and plastic pollution. Tune in for an update on the Flipflop Expedition, and we will take a look at how Kenya and the Africa region as a whole is taking a leading role in fighting the pollution in our seas.
